For PORTMEIRION®

Sophie Conran and Portmeirion have together created a stunning range of tableware, cookware and complementary accessories that are all both beautiful and practical. Designed for modern day living, each ceramic piece is microwave and dishwasher safe and moves effortlessly from the freezer to the oven.

The range sees a stunning introduction that is spot on 2011's hottest food trend – a beautiful tagine to make the perfect statement addition to any kitchen. And equally on trend, the popular fragrance range has a new twist, with the introduction of an organically shaped reed diffuser that perfectly captures the essence of this innovative collection.
